Governor - I spoke with the Coast Guard Contact person for this event - Thursday, 08.14.08. The event is to last from dinner - 7:00 p.m. - 10:00 p.m. at the latest. They have an MC that will keep the event on schedule and your remarks would be at approx. 9:30 or 9:45 p.m. They will not move you up in the agenda as they are asking for closing remarks. This is a courtesy request if you would like to do otherwise you can just enjoy the dinner. Thanks, Janice

But I can get to Juneau whenever I need to, correct? Not necessarily friday-sunday? And I'd only bring one child to help me, make sure linda knows that so no one thinks its a whole first family affair.

And how long is that ferry ride to sitka? Any options besides all day spent in Sitka?

Governor - The deactiviation/activitation ceremony is from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m. (1 hour). It is very short as they are deactivating a unit and then the same folks are being activated to different squad.

I have checked with Linda P. and due to the state closing the house for the 3 months we would pay for you and family members to come to JNU to collect clothes, etc. at this time.

You could come ANC/JNU Friday, 08.15.08 and then depart JNU/ANC on Sunday, 08.17.08,

Flights into Sitka from JNU on Saturday, 08.16.08.

Flt. #62 JNU/SIT 10:27 a.m. - 11:11 a.m.

Flt., #67 SIT/JNU 7:12 p.m. - 7:54 p.m.

The Event begins with Ferry Rides out to the Fort Rousseau State Historical Park at 9:00 a.m. with the Ribbon cutting from 1:00 - 2:00 p.m. The last boat ride coming back to Sitka is at 4:00 p.m. This is an Allen Marine Tour Boat that will be going back and forth.

Also, I could look at the Sitka ceremony on Saturday if it works out for me to get to Juneau at the end of the week to help Erika close down the house for the three months... We'll need to get our clothes out of there and other things the First Family will need over the next quarter. Pls ask Linda P., or whomever, if it's ok to bring one ofd the kids with me to help me pack up their clothes and items before Erika puts everything in storage or under visquene for the coming months.

The latest update is that the search team hiked and made it to the cabin at the lake and all the camping gear was gone, So they know Brian made it back to the cabin from Juneau to pick up the gear and took off again for Juneau. Still no emergency locater signal. USCG, DPS, and Juneau Rescue are still searching on routes back to Juneau. The fog has cleared off a bit so it should be a much better day to search.

I will keep everyone posted.

The search is continuing for Deputy Commissioner Brian Andrews and his son. No emergency locator signal went off. The fog is still hanging heavy in the search area. Juneau Rescue squad is hiking into the lake to search. Hopefully they are at the cabin just waiting out the fog on the lake.

Erika,

1. "I apologize once again that you were disappointed for not being recognized at the Former First Ladies' Tea."

This doesn't even make sense. How can someone apologize for your disappointment? A person can only apologize for their own actions.

2. "It was never mine or anyone else's intentions to have you feel slighted." Then why were all other house managers recognized and not me?

3. "As I mentioned in the previous email this was an event to honor the First Ladies' and their contributions. " Same as above - Then why were all other house managers recognized and not me?

Please tell me who wrote the program for Mr. Palin. Perhaps my question might best be answered by that person.

Thanks.

Sharon
